*Dedicated Conference Line - Every accounts comes with a unique access code to use with any of the available dial-ins. This access code is yours to keep and available to host conference calls at any time, whether scheduled in advance or used on demand.

Brand-Free Greeting - is included with all premium international and toll-free numbers which removes the "FreeConference.com" at the beginning of your call so the greeting to your callers becomes Brand-less.

Free International vs. Premium International - Every free account has access to a selection of numbers in more than 15 countries around the world. Depending on individual phone plans, long-distance fees may apply. FreeConference.com does not, however, charge a fee to use. International Plus is a premium upgrade that offers a more extensive list of international dial-ins, totalling more than 50 countries around the world.

*Premium Minutes and Overage - The Plus and Pro Bundles include 500 and 750 FREE premium minutes per month, respectively. This means each month you are allocated a total of the designated minutes to use with both international plus dial-ins and toll-free dial-ins combined. Minute usage above the allocated minutes for the month will be charged at a discounted rate of $0.08 (Plus) and $0.06 (Pro) per minute, per caller. NOTE: Starter Bundle does not include FREE premium minutes: instead, a usage will be charged at a rate of $0.10/ minute per caller.

Online Meeting Participants - The maximum number of people who can join in you in online meeting room. All of these participants can view any shared video or shared screens.

Video Feeds - The maximum number of people who can jshare their webcam or screen during an online meeting.
